SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. About mid-November 1948, the following political changes were made in Manchuria upon Soviet instigation:
 - a. In the north a "People's Republic of Manchuria" was established under LI Li-san, with its capital at Harbin.
 - b. In the south a "Northeast" government was set up with its capital at Mukden.
 - c. Kwantung was declared a "special territory."
 - d. The Inner Mongolian government remains unchanged.
2. The Mukden government intends to offer the presidency to CHIANG Ksueh-liang, if it can obtain his freedom. At present the government is run by four vice-presidents: CHIANG Ksueh-shih, CHIANG Tso-hsiang, CHA Chan-shan and WANG Fu-lin. The policy of this government is strongly provincial and only mildly communistic.
3. After the fall of Mukden, CHIANG Tso-hsiang and WANG Fu-lin were sent by LIN Piao to Peiping, ostensibly to arrange for the repatriation of Manchurians. They stayed at the house of the Minister of Education, who is a close friend of FU Tso-yi.
4. About 20 November, FU and another officer secretly met LIN Piao at Shanhaikuan. They discussed a possible North China government under FU and LIN, with the possible cooperation of YEN Hsi-shan and General CHEN Yi.
